Native Japanese Voice Actor & Voice-Over Talent (TOKI VOX)

A native Japanese voice, always on your side.

Fellow actors describe my voice as one that “gives you a gentle push forward.” A bright, clear tone with rock-steady delivery — from a smooth, cool low register to boys and native Kansai-dialect characters. Whatever the script, I aim to sound like someone on the listener’s side.

Started in broadcasting as a producer and announcer, then trained on stage with CHK Theatre. Formerly with the voice agency Stardas 21, now freelance. Having worked on the production side, I read the intent behind a script and keep sessions moving. 10 years of teaching experience at a voice-acting academy.
